3. Do I need to submit samples both to the Buyer AND with the Bid submission documents?

No, only one sample per item will be needed (for the items on the bid that SPECIFY sample requirement). This may be sent to the Buyer separately from the paperwork – preferred – or may accompany your paperwork in the package submittal but you do not need to provide double samples in any case. Sample requirements are indicated in the Bid itself and vary on a line item basis. Some items do not require samples at all, while others do. Please contact the Buyer directly if you are not sure whether you need to send a specific sample.
