Letter from the Editor

This month there was not a submission for the “What Are They Doing Now” segment; therefore, I wanted to use this opportunity to inform retirees of a few changes. HCSO Accounts Payable Section and Human Resource Bureau has advised me that the monthly Health Insurance Stipend deposit information will be send only via email now. This information was sent out at the beginning of every month via U.S. Mail.

If you would like to receive this information via email, please email me your name and email address to Tanya Preza at tpreza@hcsotampa.fl.us. I have several email distributions lists so please identify which list you would like to receive notices for. One is for HCSO Alumni newsletters and Health Insurance Stipend deposit information and the other is for any HCSO information, Funeral Notices, and Retirement Celebrations.

Comic Relief

Funny Joke: Deputy Gomer

The local sheriff was looking for a deputy, so Gomer—who was not exactly the sharpest nail in the bucket went in to try out for the job. “Okay,” the sheriff drawled, “Gomer, what is I and I?” “I I” he replied.

The sheriff thought to himself, “That’s not what I meant, but he’s right.”

“What two days of the week start with the letter ‘T’?”

“Today and tomorrow.”

He again was surprised that Gomer supplied a correct answer that he had never thought of himself.

“Now Gomer, listen carefully: Who killed Abraham Lincoln?”

Gomer looked a little surprised himself, then thought really hard for a minute and finally admitted, “I don’t know.”

“Well, why don’t you go home and work on that for a while?”

So, Gomer wandered over to the pool hall where his pals were waiting to hear the results of the interview. Gomer was exultant. It went great! First day on the job and I’m already working on a murder case!”
